

SEDATION/ANALGESIA PATIENT MONITORING COMPETENCY-BASED ORIENTATION

Name (Last, First, MI)		Rank or grade	Position	Unit
The preceptor or supervisor of the individual identified above will complete this form. The individual will review the requirements and indicate whether he or she is proficient or needs review by placing a check mark in the appropriate column for each item listed below ("P" = proficient, "N" = needs review). The preceptor or supervisor will evaluate the individual's competence either by observation of direct patient care or return demonstration in a skills lab. In completing this form, the individual identified above demonstrated knowledge and ability to perform the following skills and procedures at least once annually.
N	P	SKILLS AND PROCEDURES	INITIALS	DATE
PREREQUISITES:
		Certified in sedation/analgesia. (Has completed a course.)
		Reviews MEDDAC Reg 40-17, Sedation/Analgesia, and the SDS/PACU SOPs
		Oriented to sedation worksite (dental clinic/gastro)
		Oriented to PACU in accordance with SDS Competency-based Orientation
ASSESSMENT:
Reviews patient's medical chart for the following documentation:
		History and physical
		Labs, EKG and or chest x-rays
		Medications ordered
		Informed consent
Performs baseline assessment, to include the following:
		VS with O2 saturation level
		Allergies
		NPO status and prep completion
		IV patency and IV fluids noted
		Cardiac monitoring
		Significant medical history
PLANNING:
		Establishes patient's ID, escorts patient with medical chart and ordered medications from the waiting area to the procedure area
		Plans for equipment, including monitoring and resuscitation
		Plans for medication administration, including IV Push and reversal agents
		Confirms patent IV
IMPLEMENTATION:
		Monitors cardiac rhythm, VS including O2 saturation level, every 5 minutes beginning with medication administration
		Administers medication per physician orders and IV Push guidelines
		Notifies physician of patient's progress, abnormal variations in VS and patient's response
EVALUATION:
		Evaluates patient response to IV sedative/analgesic medications and to the GI procedure
		Determines patient readiness for discharge and mode of transport to the PACU/observation area
		Escorts patient, via wheelchair, olympus chair/couch, or litter with medical chart to the PACU
		Gives report to the PACU nurse if patient is to be transferred
		Returns unopened and unused medication and disposes of leftover medications IAW KACC policy
Comments: (Total hours for this candidate to complete procedure, etc.)
Name of Preceptor:
Annual review of competence:		Date	Results	Verified