Glossary

1. Purpose

This pamphlet provides an index of command forms utilized by the MEDDAC, DENTAC, and VS.

2. References

Related publications are listed in appendix A.

3. Explanation of abbreviations

Abbreviations used in this pamphlet are explained in the glossary.

4. Methods of forms distribution and types of electronic forms

Forms are distributed by two mediums; paper and electronic. Some forms are available only in paper medium, some are available in electronic medium only, and some are available in both mediums. To see if a form you are interested in is available in electronic format, check the MEDDAC's website (www.narmc.amedd.army.mil/kacc). The "Electronic Forms" page can be accessed from the "Staff Information" page. Some electronic forms are available in FormFlow format, some in Portable Document File (PDF) format, and some in both FormFlow and PDF formats. The Local Forms Section of the Army Medical Department (AMEDD) Electronic Forms Support System (AFESS) (that is, FormFlow) can be used to access certain MEDDAC forms that have been added to a particular medical treatment facility's AFESS.

Appendix G
Alphabetical index

This index lists all the MEDDAC forms (that is, MEDDAC forms, form letters, overprints, labels and posters) included in appendixes B through F, respectively. This index provides a handy method of identifying a form's number if you know the title, or part of the title, but not the number. The information included in this index is minimal (that is, titles and form numbers only). Before ordering a form, consult its listing in appendix B, C, D, E, or F, as appropriate, to see who the proponent is, to ensure you are ordering a form that pertains to operations at your facility. The proponents of some forms are the outlying clinics and such forms are specific to those clinics. Therefore, for example, someone assigned to the MEDDAC headquarters would not want to order a form whose proponent is Kirk.
